Louie Johnston Jr. personifies the American dream, being blessed of God in the greatest nation on earth for opportunity. From toddler days living with his beloved paternal grandmother "Mamaw" in her rented 1 room shack, collecting roof rainwater in a barrel to boil and drink, a jar for a toilet, her warm featherbed in cold nights with no heat, limited food, long toddler leg walks to Church every Sunday, learning her devout love of God and Country, to athletic and business success traveling the globe extensively, impacting thousands, it is the dream.

First work was in hayfields at 12 for $1 per hour, summers carrying brick and mortar for 8 Brick Masons at 14, earning $1.35 hourly, then high school summers installing fencing, Burger King assistant Manager, then through Junior college fabricating and installing carports, and the big break came from playing elite men's softball where the third baseman Eddie Bonosconi was Operations Manager for Yellow Freight System.

Eddie wanted to keep their star player and hired Louie as a Teamster Union laborer for $3.83 per hour, triple the minimum wage at the time, where he excelled and hired full time as a Dock Supervisor at age 20.

Louie's Dad, Louie Johnston Sr. was a pro union employee of Ford Glass Plant in Nashville, giving great insight to Louie Jr. as he supervised over 400 Teamster Union employees in an 11 year career as a company man with Yellow Freight System as Terminal Operations Manager, leaving to become an entrepreneur in multiple industries, a Pro Employee consultant for non- union Nissan's new Smyrna, TN automobile factory, then serving a dozen similar "pro employee" companies.

Louie was honored to be chosen and transported through high security underground Pentagon tunnels as a rare civilian to dine in the home of the Chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff Merrill McPeak in Washington, DC, earned numerous U.S. Military Contracts, employed 1,000 over several businesses started, earned a U.S. Patent for Military Computer Systems, among 50 state of the art systems implemented internationally in numerous industries, particularly in Health Care, specializing as an expert in Behavioral Health Care.

Louie excelled in several Sports, accepted a late August Junior college scholarship in tennis, winning the first Tennessee Junior College State Tournament in Singles and Double, then married and for extra income officiated High School and Youth Football for 11 years, as well as umpiring youth baseball.

Louie coached Men's, Boys, and Girls teams in multiple sports, coached age 16 Fastpitch softball team from Goodlettsville, TN to win a World Series Championship, his daughter's high school fastpitch team, then coached fastpitch teams at Trevecca and David Lipscomb universities.

He, wrote the "Coaches Chalk Talk Column" for years for the international Fastpitch World Magazine and his book Winning Fastpitch, was purchased by 18 Olympic Softball Teams, countless college and high schools.

Johnston has been a Foster parent, was awarded full custody of his 3 children in 1981, ages 14 months to 7 years, took in his brother's 3 orphaned teens in 2002, and raised a wonderful step daughter from age 6.

At the peak of business success with his Blue Wing USA, Johnston founded Layman Lessons Ministries in 2001 called to serve since as a full time unpaid Evangelist and Pastor to the Homeless and addicted from across America, guiding 10,000 souls off the streets to productive lives, personally living in his Training Center with the Homeless for 7 years.

Louie Johnston Jr. arranged and produced Praise and Worship CDs, 4 homeless documentaries, 62 Christian Patriot books and 8 Patriot Pastors Network documentaries, authoring God and Country Legislation in 28 states.

Louie founded Layman Lessons Church in 2001, and for 12 consecutive years had weekly Saturday morning Church services, an outdoor Street Ministry feeding and clothing 160 homeless in Nashville, TN, blessed with a weekly revival lasting over 12 years with 8,770 Homeless making decisions to accept Jesus Christ as Savior and Lord, documented week by week. Ceased from lack of funding and volunteers, it transitioned to a national network of food donors providing food to help feed over 3 million meals annually in a dozen states to homeless and needy souls.

Providing Food, Bottled water, Rescue Blankets, to the Homeless and Hopeless is expanding constantly, radio, television, internet video ministries Preaching and Training across America, has been on all major networks, Christian Television Networks and numerous Radio stations.

Layman Lessons Church was chosen as the only Nashville ministry partners of both Feed the Children and the 700 Club Operation Blessing food program, given national "Great Non Profits" Top Rated Award 2015-2017.

Louie created the first in the USA self contained Mobile Showers & Laundry Center for Homeless in 2017.

Working with US Marshals, FBI, TBI, and other law enforcement, Louie identified a murderer hiding in the homeless population in Nashville, TN that entered his Discipleship Training Center in Nashville, then sent to his Welcome Baptist Church Rescue Mission and training center in Shelby, NC. He is serving a life sentence.
